Possibility That Obregon Might Get Easier Terms After March 4.

By David Lawrence. (Special Correspondent of The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (Copy the Government in Mexico over which President-elect Alvaro Obregon will rule next month provided the legal questions pending between the two Governments can be satisfactorily adjusted.

For the first time in more than a lecade a Government has arisen in Mexico which appears to realize fully he necessity of co-operation with the United States, but public opinion below the Rio Grande is still as eensitive about any attitude that might seem cringing or suppliant. This accounts for the official statements insisting that Mexico cannot afford to accept any recognition which has
